

The FCC has a mandate to serve the people, who are the true owners of the airwaves. It may help the media conglomerates make more money to swallow more outlets, but your job is to make sure that the way the airwaves are used promotes democracy. Increasing control by fewer companies cannot serve the people!